MAUI NOTES.

The Race meeting of the Maui Racing Association is assured, entries were closed on the 27th and all the races have been filled. A good day's sport is promised. Below is the entry list for the different races:

1st Race—Pony Race. Darling, Minnie, Van Dyke, Sunrise, Ping Yang, Pop Corn and Haabeo.

2nd Race—1 Mile Dash. Ocurious and Mineola.

3d Race—Trotting. Trudie, Duke of Waikapu, Chas. S., Annie Brown and Frank S.

4th Race—Maiden. Lottie C., Annie, Cora and Dash.

5th Race—Corinthian. Annie, Winfield, Dash and Hulumanu.

6th Race—1 Mile. Winfield, Maud C. Bushwacker and Dash.

7th Race—1 Mile. Ocurious and Mineola.

The police searched the residence of Thomas Clark at Wailuku, on last Wednesday, for arms and ammunition of war. A thorough search was made of residence and out houses, but nothing was found.

A Citizens' guard was organized at Wailuku on last Tuesday evening. The members will be on the lookout for fillibusters.

A strict watch is kept on all vessels coming into Kahului. The Police and Custom House departments jointly have four men on the Kahului every night.

A ball will be given at Spreckelsville on 4th of July eve.

The public highways around Wailuku are being used for the accommodation of Wailuku plantation. The plantation is building a railroad, and in order to reach Wailuku depot at a cheap expense it is laying its track along one of the most travelled roads in Wailuku. The plantation is also laying its track along the Waihee road for some distance. Here is a chance for the Government to show its goodwill towards the people.

The steamer Kahului arrived from San Francisco Tuesday morning, 11 1/2 days out, with 500 tons coal and about 300 tons of merchandise for this port and 20 tons for Mahukona. Captain Tyson received word from the manager of the Hawaiian R. R. Co. at Mahukona that they would not discharge the steamer's freight or put sugar aboard of her, "because the company had a contract with the owners of sailing vessels running to Mahukona to the effect that they would not allow a steamer to unload freight at that port." A nice how-do-you-do at a port of entry. Here is a chance for the Legislature to show its hand against monopoly.

The brig Consuelo arrived this morning 13 days from San Francisco. She will probably get away to-morrow.

The steamer Kahului will sail next week.

Spreckelsville plantation finished grinding last Friday, the output being 6700 tons. Paia plantation will finish grinding next week.

MURRAY GETS THERE.

The Kamaaina Defeats the Malinitis.

The American League has showed its good, common sense. The members "sat" on the ambitious strangers who tried to defeat Tim Murray, and last evening that popular leader was re-elected president of the League. H. G. Crabbe was the only opposing candidate who came up to the starting post and he was distanced before the quarter mile was reached, 105 votes against 30 were the result of the balloting.

The League will now continue its good work with the following officers: T. B. Murray, president; J. N. Wright, first vice-president; Allan Clarke, second vice-president; M. H. Drummond, recording secretary; Dan Lyons, financial secretary; Geo. Hawkins, treasurer; Messrs. J. Delaney, Capt. Wilson and C. Crabbe, trustees; H. Evans, sergeant-at-arms; Levi Perkins, inner guard; John Graham, outer guard.

And the INDEPENDENT as usual showed the result in advance.

Mr. Barnes Opens.

A Magnificent Stock of Japanese Goods.

Mr. A. Barnes, who a short while ago returned from Japan has opened a temporary store in which he displays his beautiful selection of art of virtue and luxury. The goods are arranged in Mr. Cunha's building, known as the Republic, on King street, and fanciers of Japanese art and genuine goods will do well to call around and inspect the store presented. The goods are selected with a taste that has not been equalled here. The prices quoted simply show that Mr. Barnes does not propose to impose on the public, but simply wishes to furnish fine goods at most reasonable rates. To-day we mention a few objects which will sell readily. Silver headed cane made of Malacca and Ebony are offered at prices from $250 to $500. Unmounted Ebony Sticks can be had at 25 cents a piece. Beautiful Japanese slippers made of the finest straw are quoted at 25 cents a pair. Mats that surpass the Niihau mats are sold for 75 cents a piece. Grass cloth in the finest texture and in grey or white colors are priced at 40 cents a yard.

Toilet articles as brushes, etc., etc. are found in great selection and at marvelous cheap prices. Crocheted silver ware, fancy bed quilts are numerous. It will be well to call around early, because within two weeks the whole outfit will be sold and the public will have to wait until Barnes makes another trip. Nothing similar to the stock offered can be found in the Japanese stores in Honolulu.

No!!!

George H. Dole, of Riverside, brother of President Dole of the bastard Hawaiian Republic, writes to the Los Angeles press:

I am well acquainted with M. Thurston, and know him to be one of all a Hawaiian, and next a student lover of his mother country and admirer of her institutions. I am sure that sooner than labor have KAULANI encoined upon the throne as Queen of Hawaii, which would mean a virtual surrender of the country to England, he would consent to stand up and be shot as misguided patriot.

We do not think that such a comparatively insignificant thing as the shooting of Thurston should be permitted to stand in the way of restoration of the rights of the Hawaiian people, of which they have been robbed by alien speculators and by Hessian politicians. If the shooting of Thurston will remove this monstrous and infamous wrong let him be shot forthwith—Santo Domingo Bee.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramway. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

THE COMMONS.

Inquiries as to British Subjects Imprisoned at Honolulu.

London, May 30.—In the House Commons to-day Mr. James Hogan asked the Government to state the result of the inquiry into the matter of the imprisonment and subjection to harsh treatment of British subjects in Honolulu. Edward Grey, Parliamentary Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that cases in question were now being examined by the law officers of the Crown to whom they had been referred.
